Dear

Thank you for your interest in our records. For future correspondence, please update your records/make note of our BID email addresses as shown above.

We seek to provide these records at our earliest opportunity. At a minimum, we will provide an update by Thanksgiving.

Warmest regards,

Tara

Dear

Thank you for your CPRA request.

We are reviewing our records to determine any records responsive to your request.

Good morning, Venice Beach BID.

I'm wondering what has become of the appended request. I sent it eight months ago. The law requires you to have responded by February 27, 2017, but you have failed to respond at all.

I see that I neglected to include a starting date for your search. I need to see all such records from January 1, 2016 through whenever you run the searches.

Thanks for your help and cooperation,
